We understand that our children will be taught Christianity as defined by the Delmarva Christian Schools Statement of Faith.

We, as parents / guardians who are accepting the scriptural challenge to “train up a child in the way he should go,” (Proverbs 22:6), do affirm that this Bible-centered training will be carried on in our home.

We pledge that our family will show its sincere Christian purpose by attending church services regularly and through regular prayer, Bible reading, and instruction in righteousness in the home. (Hebrews 10:25; 11 Timothy 3:16).

We pledge our loyal support to the school through praying for its personnel and programs, giving to the school as we are able, and by paying the tuition and other fees regularly and on time.

We will endeavor to help meet the financial needs of Delmarva Christian Schools Milton Campus, as it seeks to fill the gap between the cost of education and the tuition received from families, with gifts as the Lord provides and leads.

We pledge to uphold, in our home and publicly, the personnel, policies, procedures of the school, and the Delmarva Christian Schools Statement of Faith. In solving school-related problems and disagreements, we pledge to implement the principles of Matthew 18:15-1. If we become dissatisfied with the school in any respect, we will seek to resolve the matter with the person or persons involved, rather than spreading criticism publicly or by holding a negative attitude.

We pledge to promote Delmarva Christian Schools Milton Campus privately and publicly, and speak well of its students, families, staff, administration, and Board.

We pledge that, if, for any reason, our child does not respond favorably to the school, we will not try to change the school to fit his/her individual needs, but will quietly withdraw him/her.

We pledge to see that our children are dressed consistently with the dress code when they leave for school each day and when attending activities after school.

We understand no progress reports, report cards, or other such services will be provided unless all tuition and fees are current.

We have read the above policies and have carefully considered the program of the school authorities in dealing with our child(ren).
